On the left, a woman with dark hair, wearing a light blue button-down shirt and dark blue pants, is pointing towards the center. In the middle, a man with brown hair, wearing a white t-shirt and blue pants, has his hands on his hips. On the right, a woman with long brown hair, wearing a white t-shirt and blue pants, is also pointing towards the center. In the background, there are several wooden desks with blue chairs. A blackboard is visible behind the man in the middle. A clock is mounted on the green wall in the upper right. Three speech bubbles contain Danish text.
